A THOUGHT
Refuse profane and old wives' tales, and exercise thyself rather unto godliness.—1 Tim. 4:7.
Begin by regarding everything from a moral point of view, and you will end by believing in God, Dr. Arnold.
It is estimated that the cotton crop of the southern states this year is worth $300,000,000 more than the crop of 1923. Nevertheless it is more than likely that later months of this year will show a majority of residents of the southern states working to bring about a change of administration, a change which would alter the economic policies now being followed by the government.

OTHER CITIES ARE EAGER FOR FACTORIES
Jacksonville, it seems, is not the only city seeking industrial development. Decatur, which has been considered a model for our own search for industries, is now trying to find out how Rockford is obtaining factories. The Decatur investigator has reported that Rockford, by reason of a dam across the river, has low power rates. He concludes that if Decatur can meet this low rate for electric power there will be no difficulty in getting factories. Each city, it appears, has its own problem to meet in the battle to secure factories. When Jacksonville finds her difficulty and solves it, she may be among the successful bidders for new industries. No city can boom for long without a reaction. With Jacksonville the new growth has just fairly begun and a look ahead to prevent difficulties may also prevent a corresponding reaction at a later time.

Few people understand how vast a place in the business of the country is occupied by the insurance companies. It has been estimated that the funds in charge of all insurance companies of the U. S. total more than $11,000,000,000, and that more than 75,000,000 people are directly interested in the insurance funds. There are 4,000 companies doing business in the country, and insurance is of vast importance to the country, not only because of the insurance itself, but from the fact that from insurance company funds railroads, utilities and other important concerns secure a considerable amount of their necessary finances.

INNS, OLD AND NEW
The old Wayside Inn, made famous by Longfellow, is being restored by Henry Ford, its present owner. Everything will be made as nearly as possible the way it used to be in colonial days. That is, nearly everything. There must be some new notes.

in characteristic Ford style to emphasize the contrast between the primitive hotel life of a century or more ago and that of an up-to-date hotel. So, along with the antiquated ovens, fireplaces, coaches, etc., there will be steam heat, electric ranges and automobiles. Very likely there will be telephones, too. And modern travelers will probably while away a winter's evening in that historic inn not by the traditional method of telling elaborate tales to each other but by dancing to jazz music from a radio outfit.

Such contrast is useful, to teach history and make progress perceptible. No doubt as much has been done to promote human comfort and convenience in the modern hotel as in any other phase of our civilization. Yet, along with the old time and its primitive facilities for travel, there has gone from the world a certain flavor of romance that is hard to replace. And in the matter of mere creature comforts, it may be questioned whether the average guest enjoys his food and company as well, or sleeps as soundly, in one of our million-dollar palaces, as his great-grandfather did in the rude inns of his day.

IS AIMED AT CROOKS
There is wide public interest in a bill introduced in the Senate by Senator Lodge of Massachusetts for the purpose of "protecting the public against fraud by prohibiting the manufacture, sale or transportation in interstate commerce of misbranded, misrepresented or falsely described articles." This bill proposes to meet one of the demands of the better class of merchants and manufacturers throughout the United States who have been endeavoring to put an end to dishonest practices which are fraudulent to customers and unfair to men who conduct an honest business. If this bill becomes a law and Congress also enacts measures making certain other classes of frauds subject to criminal prosecution, most of the work of the Federal Trade Commission would be made unnecessary and that new bureau could be abolished with a saving of a million dollars a year.

Pylo, Eric Pape, Maria Kirk, Leslie Books, Caldecott, Walter Crane and Dulac have created and contributed a great deal of beauty for the children readers of today and future days. Rachkam has constructed pictures with weird, unusual little people, cleverly arranged and beautifully colored. N. C. Wyeth's illustrations of "Robinson Crusoe" and "Last of the Mohicans" are truly superb in richness and imagination. The public library will have on exhibition this week some of the original drawings of Warwick Goble and Francis D. Bedford. Both Goble and Bedford have illustrated well known books such as Kipling's "Water Babies," several of the Little Classics series, and many of Dickens's writings.

THE WORST EVER
NEA

An old-time drummer in a hotel lobby the other night said: "During the recent cold wave, in every town I dropped into they told me they had just had the coldest weather since 1870. 'I've heard the same thing about summer—hottest spell since 1870. I even recall one town where they began telling me they'd just had the worst earthquake since 1870. Everywhere I go, it's the same old story. People seem to date from 1870, same as the Irish date from the Night of the Potato Rot. I'll say that 1870 must have been a beacon of a year. I'm glad I was too young to realize it at the time.' This old-time drummer is on an interesting trail. And there are two answers for him. First, when people say 1870 they really mean 1873. That was the year of the worst hard times this country of ours ever had. You could buy anything for a dollar. But almost nobody had the dollar. Naturally, the year 1873 stuck indelibly in the nation's memory as the arch-decade of all things evil. Every year was compared with 1873. As time passed, folks compared with the early seventies. Now it's 1870 for short. Another thing: It's almost exactly half a century since that disastrous year, 1873. And a great many things seem to run in 50-year cycles repeating every 50 years with that rhythmic regularity which Herbert Spencer, the English philosopher, discovered is characteristic of all history. Every alternate generation gets caught in the cogs when the wheels complete the 50-year turn. Panic in 1873. Hard times approximately a half century later. Big war previous to the panic of 1873. Big war previous to our recent depression. Maybe the way to dope the future is to turn back 50 years in the newspaper files.

TIPS FOR TAXPAYERS
No. 12

Deductions for business expenses form the largest claim in the return of many taxpayers. All the ordinary and necessary expenses incurred in carrying on any business, trade, profession, or vocation are allowable deductions. Typical expenses of a mercantile establishment are amount paid for hire of employees, rent, light, heat and water, telephone, advertising, insurance, delivery expenses, the cost of operating delivery wagons and motor trucks, and incidental repairs to such vehicles. The expenses of a manufacturing business include labor, raw material, light, heat, and power, selling cost, administration, and similar charges. A professional man may claim as deductions the cost of supplies used by him in his practice, expenses paid in the operation and repair of an automobile used in making professional calls, dues to a professional society, subscriptions to professional journals, office rent, the expenses of fuel, light, water and telephone used in his office and the hire of assistants.

The farmer may deduct all amounts paid in the production and harvesting of his crops, including labor, cost of seed, and fertilizer used, cost of minor repairs to farm buildings (but not the dwelling), fences, machinery, and small tools used up in the course of a year or two. Traveling expenses when the trip is solely on business, including the entire cost of meals and lodgings while away from home, are deductible. Deductions for business expenses must have certain qualities to be allowed. They must relate to a business trade, profession, or vocation in which the taxpayer has invested time or money for the purpose of a livelihood or profit. A business may be carried on by a taxpayer, even if all its activities are conducted by employees. A taxpayer may conduct more than one trade or business and claim a deduction for the business expenses of each, provided he devotes sufficient time and attention to each.

WATER PLANT PLAN GIVEN APPROVAL

Citizens Committee Favors Development Work Proposed—Plan Goes Back to Council for Action.
The citizens' water committee appointed recently by the council met Saturday afternoon at the chamber of commerce rooms. The committee includes H. M. Capps, chairman; Henry J. Rodgers, John W. Merriam, Dr. C. E. Black, H. M. Andre and Dr. J. R. Barker, and H. C. Welch is serving as secretary.

The committee held with interest the plan of water plant improvement as presented by H. L. Caldwell. These plans were presented some months ago and were approved by Alderman T. A. Chapin, who was chairman of the water and light committee of the council an experienced engineer. After full consideration of the matter the committee approved the plan and referred it back to the city council for action. The committee also arranged a conference with the board of education to be held next Thursday night, when the water improvement project and some rebuilding plans of the board will be considered. The conference is to be held so that there may be no conflict in the two improvement programs.

Rammekamp from his eastern trip before taking further action. It is expected that a city planner will be on the grounds here in about two weeks, and that work on the plan will begin immediately. Publicity of the movements of the plan experts will be given from time to time, and the people will be kept informed of the progress of the work.

CHILDREN'S BOOKS NOW ARTISTICALLY MADE
Children's books are much more attractive today than at any other period. This is largely because of the art of editing which has been greatly perfected. However the chief charm lies in the beauty and suitability of the illustrations in the books which children read and grow to love. Many talented men and women are devoting their time to the illustration of the classics and immortals of the child's world. The more recent books are well illustrated and the necessity of urging the child to read and acquire a taste for books has almost ceased to exist. Books now are so very attractive and tempting to child readers that the selection between them presents a difficult problem. Tennyson's illustrations of Alice in Wonderland have never been surpassed and it is doubtful if anyone ever will more accurately and with as much atmosphere and satisfaction picture Alice and her wonderland friends for us. Kate Greenway's quaint little figures will live forever. Howard

COUNCIL PREPARES BUDGET FOR YEAR

Public Especially Invited to Session Monday Night Where Finances Will be Further Discussed—Good Showing Made in 1923.

The city council for several weeks past has been giving a great deal of thought to the city budget for 1924. During the past week Mayor Crabtree and several members of the Council, with City Clerk Scott, have been in conference for hours daily on this budget ordinance, which will be presented to the council tomorrow night. The adoption of the budget last year, holding down the funds appropriated for each department, was of aid in cutting down city expenditures. January first this year the amount of current city indebtedness, by which is meant anticipation warrants and bills carried over from January first, 1923.

The budget funds have been reduced wherever possible and economy will be rigidly followed, however, with the thought in mind of not lessening the quality of public service. The budget appropriations last year totaled $148,302.72, and this year the total of the proposed budget ordinance is $140,955.29. However, it is quite probable that further changes will be made tomorrow night. The council members are very hopeful that citizens will attend the Monday night session and make suggestions. Summarized receipts and disbursements of the general fund the past year, prepared by City Clerk Scott, are as follows.

COLLEGE OF MUSIC NOTES

Mme. Colard spent the Christmas vacation in Chicago visiting with Danish friends and attending many concerts and a performance of Cleopatra. Madame Colard was asked by Mme. Zandt to coach her in Dykes' Songs which cycle will be on the latter's program at her Chicago recital in March. Madame Colard also spent a pleasant time with Jan Chiepusso and Emil Telmanyi, both of whom were on the Illinois Woman's College Artist series this season.

Miss Sapio and Miss Horsburgh were heard in a joint recital at the Hotel Astor on December 20th under the auspices of the Woman's branch of the Fresh Air Fund. They also had a most interesting meeting with Henry T. Finck, well known music critic, who gave them his autograph for his recent book, "Musical Progress."

Christine Cotner, Gwendolynne Schroyer and Velma Kitchell gave a program of music at the dinner given by the American Legion at the Christian church on January 10th.

Gwendolynne Schroyer was heard in a vocal number at the open meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary on January 7 at Trinity Guild House; Velma Kitchell accompanied.

Miss Florence Kirby used part of the vacation in coaching with Mr. Chiepusso for her forthcoming recital here in March. She also attended many events of the State Teacher's Association conference.

The third concert of the Artist Series will be given on January 21 by the Pasmore Trio. This organization is already well known to musicians and their program will prove fully as enjoyable and worth while as those of Chiepusso and Telmanyi, who made such a favorable impression in the first concert of the series. The Pasmore sisters received a great deal of training abroad, their father having been professor at the Klindworth-Scharwenka and Stern Conservatories of Berlin, Germany.

Their first concert was given when Dorothy, the cellist, was six years old. Since then they have been in constant demand, playing in concert over thirty times in Berlin alone. On their return to America the Pasmores first toured the southern and western states and later the middle west, and were received with tremendous enthusiasm everywhere. In some instances they were re-engaged no less than five times in succession.

Since the marriage of Suzanne, the pianist, Marie Stoss has taken her place and the fact that all three artists are splendid soloists makes an ensemble of rare artistic and technical perfection. No one can afford to miss hearing the Pasmore Trio at their Jacksonville concert.

The faculty of the Music and Expression departments had an informal get-together party on January 12. Delicious refreshments were served and games were afterwards entered into with great zest.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE NOTES

The Illiwooc Staff conducted a booster meeting in chapel on Friday morning; talks were made by various members of the staff. Following the chapel exercises the subscriptions were received to the Annual. Indications are that the number required to guarantee fully the success of the publication is amply assured.

The Student's Association had a very enjoyable get-together party Friday evening. The festivities began with dinner, when table parties of the various classes were arranged in the dining room. The last course of the dinner was served in the Belles Lettres and Phi Nu halls, after which a short musical program was given by Madame Colard.

Unusual interest is being manifested in the coming of Edwin Markham, the famous poet and philosopher who will give a lecture and reading, Wednesday evening, January 16th in Music Hall. This is open to the public and it is hoped that the famous man will be greeted by a large audience. It is an opportunity that seldom comes to a community the size of Jacksonville.

The College is in receipt of a valuable gift of books from Mrs. Carlotta B. Lusch of Chicago to be applied on the Amy Morris Mothershead Memorial. This memorial was established by Mrs. Lusch in 1917 for her sister, Miss Mothershead, who had been Dean of the college for several years. A number of other friends have sent both money and books.

President Barker reports most strenuous times at the meetings of the several boards he is attending in New York. At the conclusion of these sessions he will go at once to Chicago where the Board of Benevolence of the Methodist Church have their sessions. He is expected to return about the first of February.

MANCHESTER CLUB WOMEN ENTERTAINED

Mrs. James Travis Hostess to Members of Women's Club—Other Manchester News Items.

Manchester, Jan. 12.—Members of the Woman's club were entertained Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. James Travis. There were twenty members present and Mrs. Carroll Fanning of Hoochouse was an out of town guest.

The program carried out was one planned for a meeting on the 3rd of January which was postponed until the later date. Roll call was responded to with a New Year's resolution in rhyme. Mrs. Jane Akers gave "An old recipe for a happy New Year" which proved most interesting to all. Another interesting feature of the program was a paper by Mrs. C. B. Fawcette entitled "The Ballot and What Women do with it."

A debate, "Resolved that the Woman's clubs are better weapons than Woman's Suffrage," was also on the program. The affirmative side was upheld by Mrs. H. M. Ingram and Mrs. Herbert McConnell, while Mrs. Arch Robinson and Miss Golden Rochester were on the negative side. The judges decided in favor of the negative.

A pleasant social hour followed the program, during which delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. Coyle was also on the program and had "Co-operation" as his theme.

BELIEVED COMING YEAR PROSPEROUS

Public Is Urged to Use Thrift, as Thrift and Prosperity Go Hand in Hand

Now, with the beginning of the new year, is the time to start saving a portion of your income. Make this your thrift year and it will be your prosperous year. Every indication is that 1924 will be one of the most prosperous years in the history of the nation. Thrift and prosperity go hand in hand.

Approximately $6,500,000,000 already stands to the credit of savings depositors in the principal banks of the country, bankers say, the greatest balance in history. This is a good start.

Statisticians do not hesitate to declare that 1923 was one of the greatest industrial years in the history of the United States. The present year they declare will be another record breaker.

Begin this, the new year, with the resolve to do away with waste, waste in every form, and to save money.

Fortunate Situation
You who make your home in the middle west, the "Garden Spot of the World," are fortunate in living in this section of the country.

You live in a section that teems with prosperous cities nestled in the richest agricultural section of the world. The cities hum with whirling machinery of industries manufacturing almost everything used by mankind.

A great net work of electric power lines, electric and steam railways, telegraph and telephone systems link the cities together. The smallest village in this vast section enjoys the modern comforts of every kind.

Public schools, institutes, colleges, and churches of all denominations are found in every village, town and city of this fertile and flourishing territory populated with millions of people.

It is constantly going ahead and progressing, with huge industries and public utilities expanding and putting and putting to keep pace with the rapid growth.

To Maintain Peace
To maintain the progressive pace and prosperity there must be thrift. Someone has to save a portion of their incomes to help in the building up and expanding of the community.

Every man, woman and child can have an active part in the work by being thrifty.

There are scores of ways to be thrifty in your personal expenditures, household expense, or in the operation of your business.

Then, when you find that as a result of your thrift you are beginning to accumulate, invest your surplus into safe investments that will work for you the entire 24 hours of the day, and at the same time assist in building up your territory, strengthening it and fortifying it against hard time invasions. It will make your position safe and secure, both for yourself and for your savings.

Stated Convocation of Jacksonville Chapter No. 3 R. A. M. Monday evening. WORK. Visiting Companions welcome.

ATTENDING ROAD BUILDER'S CONVENTION

E. E. Henderson, City engineer, Perry White, street commissioner, and Daniel Sweeney are in attendance at the hard road convention in Chicago. At this convention which is held annually, road building equipment is on display and at the sessions themes of interest relating to street paving and hard road building are discussed.

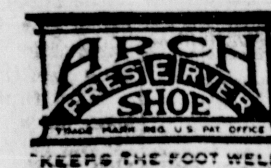

Men who deal in road building materials also find much in the convention programs of interest.

LAD MISSING THREE DAYS FROM FARM NEAR CITY

Lawrence Mosely, Son of Tenant on George Todd Farm, Disappeared Thursday Morning—Wide Search Made.

Lawrence Mosely, fifteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mosely, tenants on the George Todd farm southwest of the city, has been missing since Thursday morning, Jan. 10. Young Mosely was employed in husking corn in the shock for Mr. Todd. He had ridden to the field with his father about 8 o'clock that morning, and after telling the elder man that the corn shucked fine and that it was not too wet, had gone to work on one of the shocks. The father left him and hauled a load of fodder to the house about half a mile away.

At noon the lad did not come home to dinner, and about one o'clock efforts were made by the family to locate him. All Thursday afternoon the search continued but without result, and early Friday morning a neighborhood posse was organized and the land surrounding the Todd farm was thoroughly searched.

The field where the Mosely boy was at work is about half a mile south of the house. His tracks in the soft earth of the field led west to a pasture, where the searchers lost the trail.

Phone messages have been sent to many farmers as far west as Lynnville, in the belief that the lad might have gone in that direction and stopped to shuck corn for some resident of the vicinity. County Sheriff's forces and local police have been notified, and they in turn have broadcasted the description of the boy to neighbors.

horing cities and towns. Relatives of the Mosely family residing east and north of Jacksonville have been repeatedly called, but no one has seen him in that section.

Mrs. Mosely, mother of the boy is almost distracted, believing that some disaster may have befallen him. It was with the hope that a newspaper account of his disappearance might reach him or someone who had seen him, that friends of the family called the Journal last night.

Description of Boy. Lawrence Mosely is fifteen years old and large for his age. He is five feet, 11 inches tall and weighs 170 pounds. He is light complexioned, has brown hair and gray eyes. When last seen he was wearing a brown cap, brown vest, red flannel shirt, blue overalls over corduroy trousers and a pair of new four-buckle over-shoes.

There appears to be no reason why the lad should have left home. He was apparently contented and satisfied with his life on the farm. He had been working for Mr. Todd by the day and expected to go to work for him by the month on March 1.

SAFETY PROGRAM IS SUGGESTED FOR CITY

Decatur Plans to Impress Regard for Health and Life of People, and Idea Finds Welcome in Jacksonville

It has been suggested to the Chamber of Commerce here that this city under take to put on a "safety week" program, such as is to be staged in Decatur beginning Jan. 27. During that week everything will be done to guard the health and lives of the people of the entire city. Posters scattered thruout the public places of the city are announcing the plan and the rules which people are to follow.

Some of the most careful auto drivers of the city are selected to watch for infractions of the speed laws, traffic conditions that would cause accidents, etc., and report same to the proper authorities. The older school children are chosen to guard railway crossings so that younger children may cross with safety on their way to and from school. At the close of school each day factory whistles will blow, warning children, auto drivers and the entire population to use caution.

It is believed that such a program in this city, carried on in co-operation with schools and motorists, would be of great benefit. Speed regulation is badly needed, and the number of accidents reported indicate that something is needed to impress on people's minds the necessity for caution and due regard for the safety of themselves and those with whom they are brought into contact each day. It is hoped in Decatur that the program attempted will lead to the inauguration of a permanent Council of Safety, a plan which would no doubt prove beneficial in Jacksonville.

MORE PUBLICITY IS GIVEN JACKSONVILLE

Jackonville gains some further desirable publicity thru an excellent article in the current issue of the National Community Magazine. This magazine, devoted to local community problems and development, is edited by Ben R. Vardaman. A two-page article is printed under the heading, "Jacksonville Becomes Internationally Famous."

This article was inspired by the fact of Mayor Crabtree's visit to Halifax, Nova Scotia, a number of weeks since. The article quotes from the Halifax papers about the hearing given the Jacksonville man and there are excerpts also from the Saturday Evening Post, the Bostonian and some other magazines that have published articles about Jacksonville.

WITH THE SICK

Dean Mary Austin of the Woman's college, who has been seriously ill for the past two weeks, is improving and able to be up again.

Miss Lulu Henderson of Littleberry has been called to Little Indian by the serious illness of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Walter Fisher.

Oliver Baker, who has been confined to the home of his brother, Charles Baker on East State street, on account of an infected foot, is much improved.

Chicago, Jan. 12.—B. O. Chisholm, recently appointed by President Coolidge as international prison commissioner, was to arrive today to inspect the Joliet prison and the Pontiac reformatory.

Misses Grace and Gladys Williams of Prentice were Saturday shoppers in the city.

Queen Incubators are famous for their large hatches of strong, healthy chicks that grow.

The Queen is accurately regulated, taking care of a temperature variation of 70 degrees without danger. It is built of genuine Redwood—very scarce in these days of imitation and substitution. Redwood does not absorb the odor from hatching eggs. Cheaper woods and pasteboard lining in iron and tin machines retain the odors to weaken the hatching chicks.

The Queen has double walls of California Redwood, with insulation between. The Queen hot water system prevents the eggs from drying out and provides ample moisture for the hatching chick. The Queen will come nearer to running itself without any more than ordinary attention than any other incubator made.

This damper regulates your check draft and the direct draft to your fire.

The Queen Colony Brooder is a new and improved design of brooder stove.

As will be seen from the illustration, the check and draft lids are cast together and operated together. Thus, when the fire is too hot, the wafer expands and closes the draft and opens the check, both at the same time. When it is too cool, the wafer contracts and closes the check and opens the draft. This keeps an even heat all the time, night and day, in cold weather or warm, and does it automatically. You don't have to pay any attention to it whatsoever. Just set the regulator for the proper temperature at the start of the season—it will do the rest.

The Queen stove burns any kind of fuel with equally satisfactory results.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE DEFEATS SHURTLEFF

Blue and White Win by Score of 35 to 20—Rubendall Makes 19 Points

Illinois college annexed their second victory last night at the David Prince gymnasium when they stepped on Shurtleff to the tune of 35 to 20. The local quintet had little trouble defeating their opponents from Alton after they did not show the class they displayed against Lincoln here a few weeks ago. This was probably due to overconfidence.

Rubendall, the Rockford flash continues to show speed having 19 of the 35 points to his credit in last night's game. This makes a total of 93 points made by this speedy forward for the two games in which he has taken part in this season.

The Shurtleff tossers played a better game on the local floor than Lincoln, showing a better defense and better basket shooting. Horde and Kelsey at forward and Horde at guard showed up well and were the high point makers for the Altonians, Horde making a long shot from the center of the floor. The score:

IOWA UNIVERSITY TO NAME COACHES

Athletic Director and Head Football Coach Are Expected to Be Named Soon by Board of Control

IOWA CITY, Iowa, Jan. 12.—Definite announcement that it would name an athletic director and another man for head football coach was made by the board in control of athletics of Iowa university today.

Coach Howard Jones, whose resignation was accepted yesterday has held both positions for eight years.

Although the board refused to mention the names of any men who were being considered, it was intimated that none of the men on the present coaching staff would be given the directorship. There are numerous rumors concerning offers but the board insists that the consideration of men thus far has only been general. It could not be learned if the board has any applications for the position.

Members of the board conferred together several times today and stated that some action would be taken soon.

Negro Heavyweight Offered Big Money

NEW YORK, Jan. 12. (A.P.)—Harry Wills, New Orleans, negro heavyweight, has been made an offer of $300,000 by Tex Rickard for fights next summer with Luis Angel Firpo and Jack Dempsey.

The promoter made this announcement tonight, adding that conferences thru an intermediary, with Wills and the negro's manager, Paddy Mullins, so far had failed to effect an agreement.

Wills, according to Rickard, declared his willingness to accept the offer, confident that he can dispose of Firpo and earn a match with the champion.

Rickard's refusal to agree to any proposition without an elimination test has produced a deadlock which, it is believed may keep Wills in the background of the 1924 heavyweight program as he was in 1922 and 1923.

Rickard's offer calls for a guarantee of $100,000 to Wills for a fight with Firpo around July 4 and, if the negro wins, a $200,000 guarantee for a title fight with Dempsey in September.

Another bidder for a Wills-Firpo or Wills-Gibbons bout entered the field tonight when the National Sportsman's club of Newark, N. J., announced it was prepared to stage either contest on May 1 and offer a guarantee of $100,000 to either Firpo or Gibbons, thus matching Rickard's proposition.

NORTHWESTERN LOSES TO WISCONSIN FIVE

CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—Taking the lead at the opening of the contest, Wisconsin's basketball team maintained it all the way tonight and defeated Northwestern 25 to 10 in a Western Conference game. Gibson, Wisconsin center, made 11 of the Badgers' points. Northwestern was entirely outclassed, its floor work and basket throwing being inferior to the visitors.

TRACK MEN TRAIN FOR ILLINI RACES

URBANA, Ill.—At the seventh annual relay carnival at the University of Illinois Saturday night, March 1, the public will get its first opportunity to get a line on the outstanding track performers of the middle west. University and college track teams are training for this classic. The 1924 Olympic games in Paris next July provide an additional stimulus.

The carnival was founded in 1917 by Harry Gill, veteran track coach at Illinois. The meet attracted popular favor at once and rapidly grew to be the largest college indoor meet in America. Last year more than 500 athletes from 43 institutions entered.

Chicago, Wisconsin, Michigan, Ohio, Iowa, Minnesota, Northwestern, Purdue—in fact all of the western conference schools except Indiana invariably send teams and the Hoosiers plan to come this year. Over in the Missouri Valley conference, Ames, Nebraska, Kansas, Drake, Missouri, Grinnell and the Kansas Aggies are priming for the Illinois games.

Notre Dame always appears on the program. The Irish copped the two-mile relay in 1917. The University of Pennsylvania frequently send runners. Penn has won a brace of relays and still holds the record in the two-mile race.

Other leading universities and colleges that will be on hand include Carleton, Beloit, Wabash, Knox, Millikin, Butler, Central, Coe, Cornell, Lombard, Marquette and DePauw. Last year Earl Frazer, hurdler, came all the way from Waco, Texas, to carry the colors to Baylor university.

Central, Wabash and Carleton hold the carnival record for colleges in the one-mile, two mile and medley relays respectively.

At the 1923 games records were broken or tied in 11 of the 18 events. Many of the athletes who contributed to that stellar performance will compete this year. Among them are Brooker, Hubbard and Reinke of Michigan, respective winners in the pole vault, running broad jump, and 1000-yard run. Illinois has Ayers, dash winner, and Johnson, first in the high hurdles. Poor of Kansas won the high jump and has two more years to compete. Iowa boasts Wilson, winner of the 300-yard run and Brookins, world's record holder in the 220-yard low hurdles. Brookins finished second to Riley of the Kansas Aggies over the shorter course of 75 yards at the Illinois army last year.

Billy Evans SAYS

Why are so few pitchers good batters? Glance over the swat averages of any league and you will find that a great majority of the last 40 players in the ranking are pitchers. It would seem that a pitcher who is familiar with the manner in which the various deceptive deliveries are thrown would have an edge when he came to bat. However, the knowledge that all pitchers possess of how the ball breaks is of no advantage rather it seems to work as a handicap.

Occasionally you will find some star pitcher who is equally effective at the bat. Joe Bush of the New York Americans is such a type pitcher. Joe is a double-threat player—as they say in football.

Throughout the American League season rival pitchers work as carefully on Bush as they do Babe Ruth. Bush takes a healthy swing like the Babe, and while he strikes out often he breaks up many a ball game through his ability to hit. In the recent world series with the Giants no player on the Yankee team took more liberties with McGraw's pitchers than Bush. It was Bush who Manager Huggins selected to step to the plate in the pinch in the memorable sixth game that decided the series. The bases were filled at the time. Bush received a base on balls. Some compliment to Bush from every angle.

"It's the mental attitude of the pitcher that makes most of them poor hitters," That is the explanation offered by Joe Bush who can hit as well as pitch.

"Most pitchers are of the opinion that no one expects them to hit the ball," says Bush. "Because of that feeling they do not enter into batting practice with the same zest as the rest of the players. With the pitcher it is a mere formality a custom of base ball. When the pitcher steps to the plate in a regular game he never feels that it is up to him to come through with a base hit. Rather he figures that everyone expects him to strike out or pop up and if he does otherwise they will be greatly surprised. Instead of wanting to surprise them, the average pitcher is content to take three careless swings and retire to the bench. If all batters went to the plate feeling the same way about hitting as do pitchers not many hits would be made during the course of a ball game."

Bush admits that Babe Ruth was his inspiration in the batting line. While always a fairly good hitter and always anxious to get a base hit, Bush says the success of Ruth at the bat spurred him on, since it proved a pitcher could hit as well as pitch.

There is no question but that Bush is correct in his theory. Nine out of every ten pitchers consider batting a mere formality. Their attitude is that no one expects the pitcher to hit and they are willing to carry out that theory. Perhaps the managers are at fault for not dwelling more on the necessity that every pitcher try his best at the bat. There is no denying that a good hitting pitcher adds much to the offensive strength of a ball club.

EDWIN MARKHAM.
"POET OF THE NEW ERA"
Ever since he wrote his famous poem, "The Man With the Hoe," which stirred the masses throughout the world, and is regarded by many as "the battle cry of the next thousand years," Edwin Markham, who will speak at the Woman's College, Wednesday evening, Jan. 16, has been universally acclaimed as America's greatest poet.

When this remarkable poem first brought the poet international fame, somewhat over twenty years ago, it not only appeared in newspapers and magazines in every English-speaking land, but was translated into all languages, and was made the subject of thousands of editorials, sermons, essays, critique and cartoons. Since then Edwin Markham's genius as a poet has attracted increasing attention, and has received many glowing tributes from the American and foreign press as well as from some of the greatest contemporary writers.

CLUB WOMEN HEAR TALK ON SCHOOL METHODS

W. H. Bogan of Chicago Addresses Woman's Club Members Saturday Afternoon on Tendencies in Modern Education.

Members of the Jacksonville Woman's club at their regular meeting held Saturday afternoon, heard a worth while address on modern school methods. The address was given at the Odd Fellows hall on East State street by W. H. Bogan of Chicago, who is prominent in educational activities in Chicago as well as in other parts of the state.

The president of the club, Mrs. John Buckley, presided and the hostesses of the afternoon were Mrs. T. M. Walsh, Mrs. B. F. Shafer, Mrs. R. C. Henley and Mrs. Elizabeth Stebbins.

The club members were favored with two violin solos by Prof. W. E. Kritch, "The Romance in G" by Beethoven, and "The Bohemian Dance" by Rameau. Prof. Kritch was accompanied by Miss Esther Duncan.

Mr. Bogan who made the address of the afternoon, was introduced by Mrs. M. D. Shanahan, chairman of the educational committee. Mr. Bogan is principal of the Lane Technical High school of Chicago, to which post he was appointed in 1905. This institution has an enrollment of 5,000 boys.

Well Known Educator
Mr. Bogan was the organizer and first president of the Vocational Education association of the Middle West, and held the post of president of the National School of Vocational Education in 1920. For a term he served as president of the Chicago Division of the Illinois State Teachers association. He has achieved an almost national reputation as one of the pioneers in the introduction of vocational training in the schools of the state, and his address yesterday was largely along the line of what has been accomplished in this particular phase of educational work.

The speaker referred to the "I. Q." or intelligence quotient system which is now followed in the schools. By this system the pupils are separated into various groups by means of tests. For instance, in one group are placed the children ranking as bright pupils. In another the average pupils and in a third the children who are termed dull. In the past the speaker said, it was to custom to mass the children of approximately the same age in one class, regardless of the mental capabilities of each individual child.

He stressed the tendency of the present day to train children to become good citizens, and said that in the schools of today the children are taught their duty to state and nation in a way which was not true of earlier years.

Vocational Guidance
Mr. Bogan laid emphasis upon the importance of vocational guidance, and said that in this way the child at an early age is set to thinking of the future and determines upon some particular occupation to be followed when the years of maturity are reached.

The democratizing of our schools was the concluding thought emphasized by the speaker. This task, he said, is a Herculean one but it can be accomplished if the right sort of effort is made. As a beginning the speaker suggested the removal of the stigma which now attaches to manual labor. He referred to the manner in which soldiers of all classes in the great war worked in entire harmony for a common cause. He urged that the schools complete the task of removing the stigma from labor, which was partially removed by the war.

At the conclusion of Mr. Bogan's address Supt. B. F. Shafer of the local schools spoke briefly of the building program which the board of education is now considering. Another speaker was H. C. Henley, who discussed briefly the aims and accomplishments of the Boy Scout movement.

SECOND SEMESTER IS SOON TO OPEN

Supt. Shafer Shows There Is No Disadvantage In Starting Children In School at Second Semester.

The second semester of the public schools will open January 28th. It should be remembered that all children who will become 6 years of age by the 1st of March will be admitted to the primary grade at this time. In previous years there have been very few children enter school at this time. This is because the children were not permitted to enter school last fall unless they became 6 years of age before the 1st of October.

In former years a child was considerably handicapped by starting school the second semester because of his forced association with the failures of the first semester and these failures frequently constituted the majority of the beginning class at this time of the year. Because of the change in the age at which children may enter in the fall, a large number should begin at the middle of the year and those who enter school the 2nd semester should have an opportunity equal to that which they would have if they were to wait until the fall of the year to begin school.

B. F. Shafer, superintendent of schools said yesterday:

"Ideas which have become fixed seem very hard to overcome and this idea that it is not advisable to start a pupil at the beginning of the second semester is one of them. When the time comes when we have A and B sections in each grade each semester, it will work to the very great advantage both to the retarded and advanced pupils.

"It would be a great accomplishment to the principals if parents who have children to begin work the second semester would repeat the same. As a beginning the principal of the school where the child will attend. This will enable us to anticipate the number who will be entering and help us to better provide for them."

ERECT MONUMENT TO WHITE HALL HERO

Government Marker Placed on Grave of Roy Webb, Who Died in Battle of the Argonne, Oct. 12, 1918.

White Hall, Jan. 12.—One of the notably commendable things in connection with local patriotic work is the recent erection on a lot in the White Hall cemetery, of a government marker to the memory of Roy Webb, Company L, 61st U. S. Infantry, who was blown to atoms at the Battle of the Argonne October 12th, 1918.

It became known to Clyde E. King, historian of the Legion post, that not a vestige of his remains remained for marking on the fields of France, and he obtained the data necessary for an application for a government marker, which was ordered on June 26th, 1922, and the stone reached White Hall on December 24th, 1923, a year and a half later. In the meantime J. A. Miller, grandfather of the deceased, residing northwest of Roodhouse, arranged for the marker to be placed by the side of the boy's mother in the White Hall cemetery, which the weather permitted being done the day after the arrival of the stone.

The father, Edward Douglas Webb, died at Princeton, Iowa, June 17th, 1923. Private Webb enlisted in May, 1918. He was born at White Hall September 12th, 1895. His mother was formerly Miss Julia Ann Ross, who died in 1905.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Robinson and John Isaacs, all of Prentice, were among the Saturday visitors in the city.

RED CROSS WORK ON EXTENSIVE SCALE

Recent Figures Published Show Widespread Activities — May Organize Morgan County Junior Red Cross.

Some idea of the universality of the Red Cross association in this country, and the vast area of territory and membership it includes is gained by the following Red Cross statistics, taken from the "Red Cross Courier" the official Journal of the organization, published at Washington, D. C.

The number of members enrolled in the Seventh Roll Call actually reported to National Headquarters to date, with all estimates eliminated, is 2,103,382. This represents approximately reports from not more than one-half of the Chapters in the country, and includes no return from the Chapters outside continental United States.

The national total stated above the following membership enrollments reported by the Divisions which are: Washington Division, 926,344; New England Division, 203,367; Southern Division, 191,494; Central Division, 379,090; South-western Division, 263,472; Pacific Division, 139,615.

Reports from many Chapters that have been inactive for several years show a revival of interest, and successful Roll Calls have been conducted with many of the Chapters exceeding their membership of last year; another indication of the growing influence of the Red Cross.

The Morgan County Red Cross association, with Miss Laura McCune executive secretary, plans soon to organize a Junior Red Cross in Jacksonville which makes of interest the account of 10,000 gifts sent by the American Red Cross members of Hawaii for the girls and boys of devastated Japan, which arrived in Japan a few days before Christmas, and were distributed on Japan's national holiday, New Year's Day, each gift bearing the greeting, "Happy New Year" with the name of the Hawaiian school making the gift included on the card.

This action on the part of the Juniors of Hawaii was entirely spontaneous. The Hawaiian Chapter made a splendid record in contributing to the relief of Japanese earthquake sufferers, but the school girls and boys were not satisfied with the part they played in this work, and eagerly sought an opportunity to do something special for the children of Japan. The result was the filling of thousands of small boxes with toys and sweets, the Juniors' New Year's gift to their Japanese brothers and sisters. In addition to this gift to Japan, the Juniors of the Pacific Division of the United States sent 10,000 gift boxes to Japan.

COUNTY OFFICERS FIND STILL

Three Arrested in Boob Hunt With Quantity of Liquor.

Deputies from Sheriff Wright's office found another still yesterday afternoon when they visited the home of Harvey Hopp at the north end of North Church street, fully equipped and seemed to be in complete working order. A barrel and a half of mash was also found and about one quart of mule.

The sheriff picked up a man here in the city considerably under the influence of liquor and when questioned he revealed the source of his supply of intoxicants. Deputies from the sheriff's office then proceeded to the Hopp home and after a search of the house found a still in an old trunk under the stairway. The boiler, etc., which made up the still was taken to the county jail.

The deputies found Mrs. Hopp suffering from bad bruises on the head and neck which were said to have been inflicted by Hopp, and the officers believing her to need medical attention, she was taken to the county jail for treatment. Hopp was placed under arrest and taken to the jail.

The alleged owner of the still was not found at the Hopp home and the sheriff's force proceeded to the home of Mrs. Beasie Davenport on West Lafayette ave., where they found the alleged owner of the still, Fred Brown, and also caught Mrs. Davenport in the act of destroying a jug containing mule. The officers however succeeded in getting a small quantity of the contents of the jug, which will be used as evidence against her. Mrs. Davenport and Brown were both lodged in jail where charges will be preferred against them.

HARVEY, THE CIRCUS MAN

Harvey's Greater Minstrels coming to the Grand Thursday was organized and is owned by R. M. Harvey, a well-known circus man, who, for years, has been spending money like water in the circus business. The expense of building an amusement enterprise does not disturb him, because as Manager of one of the greatest circus enterprises on the road he learned it is only by the lavish expenditure of money that success can be attained.

Hence it is not surprising that Harvey's Greater Minstrels wear the swellest, most expensive wardrobe ever worn by any minstrel, and also that its olio of seven acts of vaudeville include specialties not to be outclassed anywhere and the members of this minstrel are highest salaried and the best treated of any minstrel men on the road—the result is the best entertainment with hundreds of would-be patrons turned away five nights out of the week.

It seems impossible to find theatres large enough to accommodate the crowds who want to see the Harvey Greater Minstrels—Moral: Buy your seats as early as possible.

FARM CROP VALUES IN STATE SURPASS LAST YEAR'S TOTAL

Illinois Ranks First in Acreage Planted to Soy Beans

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Farm crop values in Illinois for 1923 exceeded those of 1922 by $37,000,000, according to the annual report of A. J. Surratt, agricultural statistician, of the Federal Crop Reporting Service for Illinois.

"This year has witnessed a swing back toward normal corn acreage," Mr. Surratt said. "The highest winter wheat acreage on record, with the single exception of 1919. Spring wheat shows a rapid decline, at present the lowest since 1917. Oats acreage remains the same as last year which had not previously been so low since 1904. Tame hay acreage shows a decrease of 10 percent owing largely to losses of clover acreage, although the total hay acreage is still above average. The liberal acreage sown to clover last spring has a favorable start and barring unfavorable winter conditions the Illinois clover acreage next year will be unusually large. Recent crop data all go to show that Illinois is pressing strongly ahead in the matter of a large proportion of legumes. The most marked tendency of the year's crop history is a heavy increase in soybeans. Illinois now ranks as first in the total soybean acreage for the country. The past year has also seen a heavy increase in alfalfa acreage. An acreage survey of the state taken at the close of the year showed that Illinois has decreased its wheat acreage 17 percent over that sown a year ago. The probability is that a large portion of this acreage will be taken up by legumes."

"The general farm outlook shows some improvements over that of last year," Mr. Surratt continued, "due in a large measure to the increased production in 1923 and to some extent the better buying power of the farmers' dollar which now stands at 75, compared with 68 at the beginning of 1923."

"The farm value of the principal crops in Illinois this year totals $425,539,000. This increase of 9.6 percent in valuation is due largely to increased production of the main crops. Corn, with a total production in the state of 337,312,000 bushels, leads all other crops in its valuation of $219,253,000. In 1922, corn produced amounted to 313,074,000 valued at $187,844,000 and in 1921 the total output was 305,966,000 bushels valued at $116,267,000."

Hay ranks second, Mr. Surratt said with a valuation of $63,107,000 from an output of 4, 264,000 tons. In 1922 hay production amounted to 5,285,000 tons valued at $66,062,000, a slight increase over 1923, but in 1921 the valuation of hay was $50,530,000 with a total output of 3,743,000 tons. Ranking third, wheat valuation for the year was $58,756,000 compared with $59,313,000 in 1922. Oats are fourth in valuation with a state value of $52,489,000, an increase of approximately $10,000,000 over 1922's valuation.

The average farm value per acre for corn, Mr. Surratt said, is $24.38, or $3.08 more than that of the 1922 season. Winter wheat was $16.92, or $1.80 less; oats $15.98, or $2.53 more, and hay $19.24, or $1.12 more than the 1922 value per acre. Corn, wheat, oats, the potato crops and a few minor crops, he said, show increased yields over 1922 with all other crops slightly less than a year ago.

QUINCY COLLEGE BOY CHINESE MISSIONARY

Quincy, Dec.—Father Oyrpian Frank, a former Quincy college boy, will be among the next band of missionaries sent to China by the Passionist Order of the Catholic church. Father Frank, who originally came from the Belleville diocese, has been assigned to Honan province, one of the most turbulent provinces in China where robber bands have been unusually active. Father Timothy McDermott, of the first Passionist Priests to go to China, was captured by bandits in Honan Province and turned loose to make his own way back to civilization after the bandits had taken everything of value that he had.

Father Oyrpian will go through the elaborate ceremony with which Passionist missionaries are started upon their way, at Des Moines, Iowa, January 3. He attended St. Mary's parochial school at Mount Sterling, Francisian Father's College, Quincy, and joined the Passionist Order in Louisville, Kentucky.

EUROPE'S GOLD STRENGTHENING AMERICAN BONDS

Roger W. Babson Sees Flight of Capital as Help to Bonds in 1924

Wellesley Hills, Mass., Jan. 11.—Roger W. Babson, the statistician, today discussed what he termed "the flight of capital" from Europe and its probable effect on our security markets. "The steady increase in gold imports from impoverished Europe," says Mr. Babson, "are partly accounted for by the anxiety of the European capitalist to protect his wealth."

"Russia and Germany have already collapsed and several of their neighbors are in precarious shape financially. A capital levy is seriously proposed by one of the political parties of England. The French franc has been selling below five cents in the New York market. The heavy indebtedness and economic distress of these countries is not at all reassuring to the capitalist. He faces excessive taxes at best, and confiscation of his property and wealth as a possibility."

"Looking about for some place of refuge the European capitalist has chosen the American dollar as the safest currency in the world. He is now busily engaged in transferring his holdings to America in one form or another. German capitalists have dumped merchandise into our markets at extremely low prices, often selling at a loss—even on low German costs—in order to build up large cash balances in New York banks. Much money is coming over as merchandise. French interests, which face a heavy tax on capital exported, are managing to buy a volume of American Securities through England. It is estimated that several thousand European capitalists are sending funds to this country to be invested in American securities for them."

Every two or three years they come over, clip their coupons, reinvest the income, lock the box and quietly go back home.

It is probable that they declare neither principal nor income for tax purposes at home. "All of this increases our gold imports which reached a total of $300,000,000 last year. It looks as though this stream of precious metal will increase during 1924. As gold reserves grow here our banks must either loan more money for commercial purposes or buy more bonds."

"Some people believe that this influx and the resulting lowering of money rates would lead to another period of inflation. Personally, I do not fear any such development. American business, today, as recorded by the Babsonchart is running at 2 percent below normal. Any tendency to increase commodity prices will encourage a flood of foreign made goods that can be sold here, tariff and all, at low figures."

"If it were not for our immigration law we would be flooded with a wave of workers from Europe. They cannot come personally but we must expect their labor in the form of foreign made merchandise."

"Under these circumstances it is probable that the banks will turn to bonds as an outlet for a large part of their surplus. Heavy investment in bonds by our banks always tends to strengthen prices," concluded Mr. Babson. "Adding to this an abnormal investment by European capitalists and the prospect of lower money rates and we have the promise of a strong bond market in 1924."

No Permanent Change Has Occurred in Past Forty Years

Springfield.—The popular belief that winters in the United States are growing milder in a fallacy, according to Clarence J. Root, government meteorologist in the Springfield weather bureau, who said that no permanent change has taken place in temperature or climate for at least 140 years.

Mr. Root also denies that snows are becoming scarcer and assigns the light snow falls of the last few years to the fact that the heaviest precipitation of recent winters has happened to come during comparatively warm periods.

To illustrate his statements Mr. Root quoted government reports which show that January in 1918 was the most severe winter in the climatological history of Illinois.

"The low temperature in that month and the heavy snows," he said, "combined with strong winds were most unusual. As far back, at least, as 1878 there has been no month of any name as cold as January 1918, and the local weather record at Peoria, which extends back 68 years, shows this month to have been the coldest month and the combined temperature of December and January to have been lower than any two previous consecutive months."

"The snowfall for that month was nearly double that of any previous month and the average temperature for the month was only 12.6."

The meteorological records at New Haven, Connecticut, according to Mr. Root, are the oldest in existence in this country, extending back to 1780. These records, averaged for the various ten year periods have varied only three degrees. The coldest ten years in the record occurred between 1810 and 1820 when the average was 47.5 degrees above zero. The warmest ten year period came between 1910 and 1920 when the average was 50.0 degrees above zero. But to show that this high average in recent years does not indicate any permanent change Mr. Root points out the fact that the average for 1890 and 1910, the ten years just preceding the coldest ten year period was 50.4 one tenth of one degree colder than the average between 1910 and 1920.

The report further shows that the coldest January on record came in 1857, or 77 years after the record was started. The coldest February in the 140 year period came eight years after the warmest February and the coldest March on record came in 1885. On the other hand, no June in the past 134 years has been warmer than June in 1779.

"The idea that winters are warmer than formerly is possibly due," Mr. Root said, "to the fact that people are better equipped for cold weather now than they were 20 years ago."

Warmly dressed and provided with modern furnaces and plain hot water systems people do not suffer the inconvenience and pain from cold that they once suffered. In addition to this our cities have become so well built up that there are plenty of buildings to break the force of the wind and make weather seem milder."

ALASKAN NICKNAMES ARE PASSING OUT

FAIRBANKS, Alaska. (A.P.)—The vogue of nicknames in Alaska has almost passed, but a few old-timers still go about bearing them.

Posthole Pete was debtor for his designation to a legend that in Montana he had been set digging holes for posts and told to go straight ahead. His employer, coming back some days later to see how the digger was progressing, found him some miles off, behind him a row of holes leading straight across Montana.

The Outlaw Swede was not a desperado, but had a desperate admiration for such persons, reveling in the exploits of Jesse James and the Younger brothers. The Seventy Mile Kid was a star ski jumper from Chicago. He is in charge of Mount McKinley National Park, and is said to know more about that peak than any other man. The Malamute Kid was a good dog musher. The Step and Half Kid jumped. The Going Kid was famed for his skill in driving a dog team.

Characters of the northland recalled by pioneers include Whiskey Dick, Gambler's Ghost, Rampart Spider, King Oscar, Long Shorty, Jimmy the Bear, Caribou St. Clit and Bull Council. Some of the celebrated women were Sweet Marie, the Dutch Kid, the Dawson Nightingale and the Sweet Pea Girl.

GOOD SEED CORN FOR SPRING IMPORTANT

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (A.P.)—Preparing to meet a threatened and serious seed corn shortage in Illinois next spring, judges will give extraordinary attention to the germinating qualities of the corn entered in the annual utility corn show at the University of Illinois January 23, according to Dean H. W. Mumford, of the University college of agriculture.

The problem of providing good seed corn for next spring is considered so important that a new utility score card has been developed for selecting the winner, which scores 35 percent of the total score of the sample on its germinating qualities. Only five per cent is allotted for adaptation, a quality which in previous years has received much higher rating.

A definite number of seeds will be removed from the ear of each sample, ten days before the awarding places, and a thorough germination test will be made by the judges.

Awards in the corn show, given by the Illinois Bankers' association, total $500. Beside this main event a small grain show will be held at which ribbon awards will be made for the best samples of oats, wheat and soybeans.

WATCH REPAIRER IS MADE FROM LABORER

Wonderful Results of Training
Given by the Veterans' Bureau for Disabled Soldiers Shown

To make a watch repairer out of a laborer is not only a super accomplishment for the instructors effecting this transformation but it proves that a man with initiative and confidence is a big factor in making such a change possible.

That such an accomplishment can be made a fact has been brought to light by the case of Joseph Kinicki, Jr., a disabled ex-soldier living at 1080 Concord avenue, Detroit.

Before entering the service Kinicki was a laborer. But while serving on the Champagne sector in France he was wounded in the chest by a machine gun bullet. The nature of this wound incapacitated him from returning to the heavy work of a laborer. So, after spending six months in the hospital, he was discharged. Knowing that it would be foolish for him to attempt to "carry on" at his pre-war occupation Kinicki applied to the U. S. Veterans' Bureau for a course in vocational training which was given him.

For 31 and a half months he received "placement training," training on the job, in one of Detroit's large jewelry shops. At the end of this period he had become proficient, whereupon he was given suitable employment and declared rehabilitated.

Kinicki is doing well at his new vocation. Furthermore, he is now earning a wage which is 35 percent in excess of his pre-war income.

PRACTICAL LESSONS TO DAIRY STUDENTS

Champaign, Ill. (A.P.)—Practical lessons in dairying are given to the students of dairy husbandry at the University of Illinois here, in a model dairy, maintained by the college of agriculture, where as much as 10,000 pounds of butter are sold monthly. The dairy sells as high as 500 gallons of ice cream, 28,000 quarts of milk, 1,500 quarts of cream, and 660 pounds of cheese in addition to quantities of skimmed milk, buttermilk and condensed milk.

SANCTUARIES TO BE FOUNDED IN STATE FOR FISH AND GAME

Hatcheries and Bass Ponds to be Placed in All Parts

Springfield, (AP)—Fish, bird, and game sanctuaries and hatcheries are to be established in all sections of Illinois under plans now being developed by the state division of game and fish, according to William J. Stratton, chief of the division.

Provisions have been made for the establishment of three fish hatcheries and as indefinite number of bass ponds, or fish sanctuaries. Locations for the latter are now being surveyed by the division.

One of the hatcheries is to be located in the northern part of the state, probably in the vicinity of Rockford, while a second will be developed in the central part of the state and a third in southern Illinois.

The bass ponds will be distributed in all sections and will be stocked and cared for by the state, according to Mr. Stratton. These will usually include considerable surrounding land, for bird and animal sanctuaries.

The division has arranged to purchase all the entire output of one of the largest wild game farms in the state for use in artificial re-stocking. Pheasants and other wild birds will be introduced.

The state has been restocking Illinois rivers with fish for sometime and with the help of the preserves to be established, and those already in operation a permanent supply will be assured Mr. Stratton said.

Eventually the division hopes to add to its preserves a large section on the Illinois river to be used as a sanctuary for wild duck and other migratory birds.

N. R. Huff, a well known authority on conservation, has been employed by the department to assist in carrying out its conservation plans. He is at present in the southern part of the state, making a survey of the possibilities there and giving talks on conservation.

THE AMERICAN EAGLE

Proud tho you may have been of eminence
In heraldy, a coin on which is spread
Your image is the price upon your head.
What seems to be your capital offense?
Devouring fish our traps waste by the ton.
So nobly in our stern fore-fathers' eyes
You loomed, they called you forth to symbolize
The independence they had earned and won.

The likes of them who gambled for Christ's coat
Now slays you for the coin that honors you.
Above the flag you perch—outside the law!
Is there a thing of glory, old or new,
Malign or mild, convenient or remote,
That is secure from Traffic's beak and claw?

TO EDWIN MARKHAM

I listened in the wind with troubled ear,
And voices heard in every pitch and style,
Some encourage, others to beguile,
Or ever to command respect, or fear.

At last, a voice that seemed aloof, yet near,
Like that of John the Baptist, self exiled
Was heard, and One with fearless smile
Came, offering his honey wild and clear.

The high-strung troubadours, so wont to be
The foremost sponsors of the styles they served,
Began to hector the iconoclast;
Unmoved, he read the rights of poesy
To hold the glass for Truth, nor ever swerved
From censuring their wretched trade and caste.

THE REFEREE

Idle
Germany has three and a quarter million men without jobs. If these men were working full-time, at only $3 a day, it would mean at least three billion dollars a year added to the total of German wages.

When you ponder this big sum in connection with German war reparations, you realize that there is nothing more important in international politics than any measure to keep Germany fully employed.

Talkers
How often do you use the phone? Nearly 25 billion conversations a year pass over the telephone wires. This is about 230 calls for every man, woman and child in the country. Less than one a day.

There's a phone for approximately every seven Americans. So the average phone is used about 1600 times a year. Many now living can recall when the phone was only a toy of the experiments. With this precedent, it's safe to make almost any prediction for the future of radio and airplane.

Alibi
Merchants frequently blame poor business on the weather. J. Casin, sales manager of the Realite Company, has studied the matter and decided that in the long run weather has very little effect on business. Unfavorable weather may temporarily affect sales but there's a corresponding increase later, according to Casin.

Electric
Epilepsy and many other diseases of the nervous system and endocrine glands are decidedly influenced by the amount of electricity in the air at various times, according to a British scientist.

Which suggests that electricity eventually may be the Great Medicine. This is doubly probable in view of the theory that matter is materialized "solidified electricity" and the body an electrical machine.

Burglar
Misfortune can frequently be turned to advantage. Burglars stole some coats from a store in Waltham, Mass. The shrewd store manager advertises: "If the gentlemen who took the overcoats will bring them back, we will exchange them and see that they are well fitted, as we carry a complete line."

Troubles and mistakes can be converted into good investments. Mistakes usually prevent us from making greater blunders later.

Silver
There's considerable agitation in some quarters because the country is not consuming more silver than 12 years ago. There'd even be a decided decrease, if it weren't that the use of silver in photography has increased greatly. One of the reasons for the decline in silver consumption is the growth of the sale of silver substitutes (alloys of other metals) for tableware.

Sister Mary's Kitchen

BY SISTER MARY

Canned vegetables soon lose their appeal if served too often "au naturel." There are many made vegetable dishes that are delicious and nourishing for cold weather.

In serving a made dish keep in mind that the "makings" increase the food value but decrease the digestibility. The combination of ingredients is more slowly digested than the same ingredients served simply. For instance, soft boiled eggs are more quickly and easily digested than a soufflé.

So a "made" dish of vegetables should be served as the main luncheon dish or with a light meat course for dinner.

Canned corn lends itself to appetizing dishes. Corn fritters, corn croquettes, corn soufflé, corn soup and corn pudding are almost as good made with canned corn as with fresh.

Any canned vegetable is improved if a little sugar is added with the salt when seasoning to serve. Much of the natural sweetness of the vegetable is lost and the sugar is needed to bring out the flavor. From one-half to one teaspoon of sugar for a pint of vegetables is a good rule.

Corn and Pimiento Timbales
One pint can of corn, 1 small can pimientos, 1 tablespoon cream, 1 tablespoon butter, 2 tablespoons canned tomatoes, 1-2 teaspoon minced onion, 2 eggs, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-2 teaspoon sugar, few grains pepper.

Rub corn, pimientos and tomatoes through a fine colander. Add onion, sugar, salt and pepper; cream and butter. Heat to melt butter and add yolk of eggs beaten until thick and lemon colored. Beat whites of eggs until stiff and dry and fold into mixture. Turn into well-buttered custard cups of timbales and set in a pan of hot water. Cover with buttered paper and bake 25 to 30 minutes in a hot oven. The timbales should be firm to the touch when done. Turn out of the cups onto a hot platter and garnish with parsley.

Luncheon Corn on Toast
Eight thin slices bacon, 1 pint can of corn, 4 tablespoons milk, 1-4 teaspoon pepper, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 4 eggs.

Cut each slice of bacon into four or six pieces and fry until slightly brown and crisp. Add corn, salt and pepper and milk if the corn was solid in the can. When very hot add the eggs and stir rapidly with a fork. When the eggs are "set" pour over hot buttered toast and serve immediately.

This makes a good Sunday night supper dish. Serve with brown bread and butter, pickles, radishes or olives.

Corn Croquettes
One pint can of corn, 2 tablespoons butter, 4 tablespoons cream, 1-3 cup flour, 1-2 teaspoon sugar, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-8 teaspoon pepper, 2 eggs, fine dried bread or cracker crumbs. Add butter, sugar and cream to corn. Mix flour, sugar, salt and pepper and sift into first mixture. Add one egg, slightly beaten, and cook, stirring constantly until thick. Spread on a buttered platter and let stand until cool. When cold, gently mold into small balls or cylinders, dip in crumbs, then in egg slightly beaten with one tablespoon milk, roll again in crumbs and drop into deep hot fat. Drain on brown paper and serve very hot. The fat should be hot enough to brown an inch cube of bread from the soft part of the loaf in 40 seconds.

Scalloped Corn
Two tablespoons butter, 1 small green pepper (optional), 1-2 medium sized onion, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-2 teaspoon paprika, 1-8 teaspoon mustard, 1-2 cup milk, 1 cup canned corn, 1 egg yolk (optional).

Melt butter, add pepper cut in tiny strips with the seeds removed and cook five minutes. Add onion, finely minced and cook two minutes longer, stirring constantly. Add flour and seasoning and mix well. When smooth add milk, stirring constantly, and bring to the boiling point. If eggs are plentiful beat the yolks until thick. Add corn to sauce, remove from the fire and stir in the egg yolk. Turn into a well-buttered baking dish, cover with buttered crumbs and bake in a moderate oven until the top is browned.

SMITH HARDWARE TO OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY

Business Conducted in Jacksonville in Same Family and Under Same Name for More Than Fifty Years.

Fifty years successful business in one city is an achievement of which any firm might be proud. Such a distinction belongs to the H. L. Smith Hardware Store on the south side of the square. In this, the jubilee year of the establishment, the proprietor Herbert L. Smith, is planning extensive improvement.

The display room will be extended in depth from 100 to 180 feet. The counters are to be moved from the sides to the center, forming a horseshoe. Samples and all goods will be displayed from the sides and from the center display cases and racks. This plan has become popular in many large city stores. It is supposed to display the goods to better advantage, and give the customer an opportunity to view the goods at the sides of the store at much closer range.

The Smith Hardware Store, organized in '74, has been continuous in Jacksonville under one name and in one family for the past fifty years. It was organized in 1874 by H. L. and B. W. Smith under the firm name of the proprietors. Later Arthur G. Smith became associated with the business, but the firm name remained as that of two senior partners, H. L. & B. W. Smith. The store was originally opened in a building on the north side of the square, immediately west of the old Jacksonville National Bank, which stood on the present site of the Myers and Chamber of Commerce building. After a comparatively short stay in this location, the business was moved to the building on the northeast corner of the square now occupied by Phelps Dry Goods Co., a few years later moving to its present location on the south side of the square.

Interesting Features.
For a number of years the firm was exclusive agent in this section for the "Round Oak" stoves. Three thousand of these stoves were distributed by the Smith Hardware Store during the period of that agency. It was B. W. Smith who was instrumental in getting the manufacturers of the heater to change their model to a coal burner. Throughout the years the firm has handled an exclusive general hardware line, with exception of oils, paints and varnishes, which are carried in addition to the hardware. The goods handled are of the highest quality and this has ever been the reputation of the firm.

Store Personnel.
On April 1, 1922, H. L. Smith accepted ownership of the business, and the name was changed from H. L. & B. W. Smith to H. L. Smith Hardware. As a young man the present owner was an assistant in the store. He came to the proprietorship of the business after ten years' experience as a traveling salesman. Present employees in the establishment are S. A. Fairbank, Leo Sehy, Arthur Henderson, J. J. Coley, Edwin Devlin, Miss Ruth Jordan and Mr. Smith.

The Firm's Policy.
Efficient service, standard goods of high quality and reasonable prices have always been and will continue to be the principal factors in this business. In its quiet way the Smith Hardware firm has been distributing for fifty years useful articles to the community. It would be impossible to compute the labor performed with the tools sold by this firm, or to estimate the service to the thousands of people which has been given thru the goods distributed from its store. There is always something to stir the imagination in a Golden Jubilee of any sort, but somehow the record made by a business firm in those years of unobtrusive service to a city and community has in it something impressive.

It is planned to enlarge and improve the business as a celebration of the fiftieth anniversary, and it is certain that the people will continue to receive even more valuable service from this firm than in the past, and it is hoped that the establishment will continue its work for another 50 years.

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE
ENDORSES "FATHER AND SON" MOVEMENT

Voices His Approval in Letter to National Chairman

NEW YORK. (A.P.)—President Coolidge has written a letter to Walter W. Head, of Omaha, Neb., connecting his approval of the National Father and Son Movement, with its uses in helping to improve world conditions. Mr. Head is chairman of the National Father and Son committee.

Great advances in civilization in the past, the president points out, have come as a result of the awakening of the spiritual forces within the individual, as proposed in the Father and Son program. In his endorsement of the movement, President Coolidge follows the policy of President Harding, who urged general co-operation with it on the part of the public in a letter written shortly before his death. President Coolidge's letter follows:

"In view of the present conditions thruout the world, which might involve even our own country, now so contented and peaceful, it seems peculiarly appropriate that there should be launched in our home land a program that has as its chief objective the desire that fathers re-consecrate themselves to their paternal obligations, and that the attention of sons be directed to their obligation to their fathers, to their homes and to their country."

"The Father and Son Movement is intended to lead sons to a greater appreciation of their fathers and of their homes, and to a higher respect for them. It is also intended to encourage them to accept in a larger way their responsibilities as citizens.

"With the process of recuperation now going on thruout the world, it is imperative that the basic principles on which America rest should be recognized by all our citizens. History points in no uncertain terms to the fact that great advances in civilization have come as the result of the awakening of the spiritual forces within the individual. No more appropriate way to accomplish this can be devised than that proposed in the plans of the National Father and Son Movement."

FARM BUREAU NEWS

1924 Ton Litter Rules.

Rules governing the Ton Litter Club Project are being sent out this week. The rules are practically the same as last year. The enrollment and entry of the litters closes April 15. Litters must be officially nominated by July 1, and officially inspected before August 1. Illinois produced the largest number of ton litters of any state last year and it is hoped the number can be increased this year.

What are Your Cows Producing?
The cow testing association in Franklin County revealed the fact that 370 cows were averaging 605 pounds of milk and 25 pounds of butter in December. The best cow produced 1860 lbs. milk and 58.8 lbs. butter. The farm adviser in that county estimates that the average herds in that county are only producing 100 to 120 lbs. of milk and 12 pounds of butter fat. The dairymen who are making money there have the high producing cows and who raise the most of the feed especially legume hay and silage on their own farms.

The Agricultural Outlook.
The U. S. D. A. in the Agricultural Situation of Jan. 1, 1924, has the following to say:

"Agriculture comes up to the new year much as a heavily burdened man hails breathing space in a long up hill climb. Farmers have not reached level ground though generally the going is getting better right along."

All thru the readjustment turmoil of the last four years has run an insistent pressure to reduce production. The markets have driven home a harsh lesson. It reached the Cotton Belt early. It has not reached the Wheat Belt.

The great feed crops, corn, oats and hay have yielded heavily for four seasons, however, increase in livestock numbers as much as anything else, the natural effort to carry along that vast store of feed and a spore of it gradually. It is somewhat like funding debts to a longer, more tolerable basis. What we have come to, therefore, is essentially a new phase of the readjustment period. First it was the money crops, the crops of world markets. Now it is the great feed crops, a longer, more delicate adjustment working itself out thru the medium of the livestock industries. This is a matter for producers to move slowly on. If a man's hand is not actually forced, this is a poor time to let snap judgment lead him into the reversal of plans which usually foreshadows violent swings in the cycle of production and prices. Even if the times force an absolute contraction of farm output toward the bounds of the domestic market, we are not sure that it might not involve a relatively high level of activity within the animal industries—backed presumably by adequate tariff and other measures of national scope. Shrewd men are now taking advantage of cheap hogs and cattle to improve their breeding herds. Agriculture thus goes into the new year with renewed hope. With feed crop surpluses safely stored on the roof, there is more chance for a breathing space. The general outlook is more promising than at any time since 1920.

Telephone Talk No. 2

What good telephone communication means to a nation is best illustrated by hundreds of historic events before the telephone existed. Here are a few:

On January 8, 1815, the battle of New Orleans was fought. The nation was at peace—the treaty had been signed two weeks before, but General Jackson did not get the word and there was heavy loss of life.

The historic address of Abraham Lincoln on March 4, 1861, was carried at record-breaking speed—7 days and 14 hours—by pony express from St. Joseph, Mo., to Sacramento, Cal., a distance of 1,400 miles. Today it could be "on the wire" in a few seconds.

June 19, 1812, President Madison issued a proclamation of war with England. The only means of communication with the country was by stage coach and post-rider, and it took several weeks to send the message from England to the South. With telephone communication there could have been unity of thought and action.

Don't Say You Haven't Time.
TIME!
"I haven't time! I haven't time!" This is the cry one hears on all sides. How little of Time there seems to be. Yet there is no commodity in which there is no shortage. Never was nor ever will be.
Time is the one possession of mankind that is absolutely impartially and equally distributed among the sons of earth.
There can be no hoarding of it, nor redistribution, nor unequal proportionment. There is no bounty now and famine later. There is no speculation in time. It is a hard and fast rule with unvarying doling out of second by second, minute by minute, hour by hour, and all mankind knows to the second when a new second drops, a fresh minute is born, an hour is run, the day is accomplished. It is a certainty, with neither variation nor fluctuation. And each one has his own individual share, that neither the rich can gobble up nor the poor absorb. And this share is all there is. Each one of us has all the time there is—Eternity!
Therefore, it is a question of how we use our time and not that we haven't time. Let's don't say that we haven't time. We have all there is—and the supply is Eternity.

Invoice Your Thoughts.
Did you ever take an invoice of your thoughts?
Now that the invoicing is about done in commercial and financial circles one can catch their breath after paying bills, and signing profit-sharing coupons, and a little time spent in taking an invoice of one's thoughts might prove profitable, and is at least interesting. I have just completed my own.

I was surprised to find how many old, shop-worn, out of date, obsolete, crude, unhealthy, unsound, cowardly, avaricious, poverty-stricken, measly little old thoughts I had in stock.

I immediately began to clean out the old rubbish, brush the shelves and shine up the show cases, and placed an order for new goods.

I made out a budget and decided upon my business course for the year, having it strongly in mind to keep up with styles and seasons and instead of waiting until the end of the year to invoice again, to take stock so-to-speak each day, disregarding any thought proved by that day's experience to be unworthy, and to increase my stock of not only good thoughts, but good doing thoughts, for after all what are thoughts for if they don't carry one along the highway of better living. There's considerable pleasure too, in sorting out. One is surprised at what he finds. Back in one corner, I found a wad of envy, small, wound up tight, but like a steel spring used in a phonograph, all ready to spring out in volumes the first time the crank is turned. And I didn't know I had a bit of that stuff on hands. I was ashamed, too, to find a little bundle of hate that I looked for all the world like a bunch of kindling with shavings and all coal-oiled, just waiting for a match to touch the thing off. I thought the best way to do with that rubbish was to burn it up—and I'm glad that you didn't have to hear the roar and feel the flames of that bunch of hate—and that I got it off the shelves before anything started there. I set to work right away to clean out those shelves and stock them with love, but the smell of hate is pretty strong and I had a time to get the hate taint off so that love would even stick her nose in. It just takes a lot of cleaning and disinfecting to clean up a hate corner. It never did me any good all the time I carried it, and it's silly to carry a worthless stock, especially when it is of an explosive character.

I found that I had on hand about the biggest temper stock in America with no premium on the offerings.

I discarded a lot of the stuff, got all the front shelves cleaned, and began on the back one, when I found there was a seepage from some where, and I found I had an over-charge—extra supply tanks both in the attic and basement so so I could get it both going and coming. I don't expect to order any new supply, but having such an abundance on hand I'll probably be all year getting rid of the present stock, that the store that advertises "closing out sale," the year around.

I hadn't invoiced in a long time, and I found an awful big stock of carelessness, procrastination, crankiness, fussiness, meddlesomeness, a whole shelf of spurs—quantities of indolence, and say, that big closet of hurry stuff—a small roll of exaggeration, and sundry other articles—as the schoolboy's composition reads—"and other things too numerous to mention."

But the thing that got me was the poverty and "pity-me" stock. As I look back upon the heap and heap of disagreeables took I still shudder. Since I have looked it over I can't think why I ever ordered the stuff. That "pity-me" stuff. There isn't any use to try to separate poverty and "pity-me" junk. periences to be unworthy, and to increase my stock of not only good thoughts, but good doing thoughts, for after all what are thoughts for if they don't carry one along the highway of better living. There's considerable pleasure too, in sorting out. One is surprised at what he finds. EAT "ESKIMO PIE"

One of the best known horses in the United States is owned by Lieut. Colonel Kenyon A. Joyce, assistant chief of staff of the 9th Corps Area. The horse is a Kentucky thoroughbred, 14 years old, and, although he readily understands more than 20 words, will do at a single word of command all the things ordinary horses do by signal.

Of the 118,000 men who entered the service from Wisconsin, 8,081 have been given the opportunities of a higher education. On a basis of $30 a month, the state has paid the expenses of soldiers until the maximum expended for each individual's education has reached $1,080. Nearly 5,000 have taken free correspondence courses, and 500 have entered classes of evening schools. For soldiers' education, Wisconsin has already spent $3,110,679. More than 100,000 soldiers have been paid a cash bonus of $10 a month, ranging from $50 to $300 for each individual. An aggregate of $15,583,708 has been paid to these men. Nearly 600 ex-soldiers have already been given treatment for "shell-shock" and mental troubles traceable to war service.

CHICKEN YARD FLOOR LATEST BOOZE CACHE

Belleville. —The floor of a chicken yard is the latest booze cache discovered by St. Clair county officials, in their search for illicit liquor.

After searching for an hour for liquor in the home of Elmer Conklin, living near here, three deputies were about ready to give up when a neighbor suggested that they look under an old feeding platform in the chicken yard. The platform made of rough weathered lumber, did not look like a promising cache for liquor but the deputies found five hundred quarts of beer in a pit beneath it.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—Stock prices were churned about briskly in today's brief session with standard industrial and railroad shares showing relatively little change on the day's trading.
The week end profit-taking was heavier than usual but the offerings, as a rule, were all absorbed.
Acute weakness again developed in the foreign exchange markets. Demand sterling dropped 1 1/2 cents to $4.26 and then rallied slightly. United States Steel common again crossed par but ran into a large volume of realizing sales and fell back to 99 1/2, where it was unchanged on the day. Oil shares failed to make any appreciable response to further crude oil and gasoline price advances.
The weekly clearing house statement showed decreases in all principal items. Loans, discounts and investments fell $28,855,000.
Cash in own vaults dropped $2, 483,000, reserve of member banks in the federal reserve bank deposited $2,755,000. Aggregate reserve totalled $510,165,000, leaving a deficit in reserve of $4, 402,290.

Foreign bonds were inclined to yield in sympathy with the weakness in foreign exchange, but recessions were small.
United States government issues held steady.

ENGINEERS TRACE UNDERGROUND RIVER

Bellefonte.—Tracing an underground stream to its source was one of the feats which engineers were forced to accomplish before they could lay plans for repairing the Radium mine here, in which three men were recently drowned when the face of one of the entries gave away, flooding the workings.

At first it was thought that the water in the Radium mine had gained its entrance by breaking through the wall of the old flooded mine which was nearby. The flow into the Radium mine continued, however, after engineers figured that the waters in the old mine had been exhausted.

Attention was then turned to nearby creeks, but no outlet could be found in the beds of any of these. Ian D. Marsh, chemist for the Aluminum Ore company, finally solved the problem by depositing a quantity of phenolphthalein in the bed of one of the nearest creeks some distance above the Radium mine. This chemical colors water a vivid red and a very little of it will color a great amount of water. The engineers then hurried into the Radium mine and watched the stream of water that was flowing down the wall at the break. The water soon showed a discoloration and gradually became as red as the water in the creek. The engineers are now planning to divert the stream into another channel.

STATE TO PROSECUTE UNLICENSED DOCTORS

SPRINGFIELD, Dec. 20.—(A. P.)—Chiropractors who practice in Illinois without obtaining a state license will be arrested and prosecuted, A. M. Shelton, director of the department of registration and education, said in announcing a drive against all "unlicensed doctors."

"Twenty five cases involving chiropractors," Mr. Shelton said, "are now pending in various county courts in southern central Illinois, and in Chicago. These cases will be prosecuted vigorously and wholesale arrests are expected in the near future. This department has law enforcing divisions and, although not functioning as a division, is prosecuting such cases in the duty of the department to work up these cases."

"There are two kinds of practitioners' licenses granted in this state. The first allows a doctor to practice with drugs and perform surgical operations. The other license, which is known as the other practitioners' license, permits practice without the use of drugs or operative surgery. Chiropractors, in many cases, have not had the required amount of schooling in order to take the examinations."

The chiropractors, in presenting their view of the situation in Illinois according to Dr. G. Ward Collins, a Chiropractor of Springfield who was recently arrested, contend that "the present law, besides class legislation, prohibits any chiropractor from qualifying to take the examination, according to an exact interpretation." "Requirements of the Illinois law are that chiropractors, to be licensed, shall have had 22 months of schooling entirely within any three year period, which cannot be complied with as there is no chiropractic school in existence providing such an intensive course."

"Chiropractors of the state," Dr. Collins declared, "are just as anxious to maintain offices legally as any other profession regulated by state supervision. The present board, however, is composed of men who are not qualfied to examine our qualifications as they are diametrically opposite to our profession. It seems to be the same everywhere, where medical men cannot compete fairly with us, that they try to squelch us through the courts."

Miss Helen Burbank of Bluffs was shopping in this city Saturday.

Golden Jubilee ANNOUNCEMENT

FIFTY years of successful business in one city is an achievement of which any firm might well be proud. Such a distinction belongs to the H. L. Smith Hardware store on the South Side of the Square. In this, the jubilee year of the establishment, the proprietor, Herbert L. Smith, is planning extensive improvement.

The display room will be extended in depth from one hundred to one hundred and eighty feet. The counters are to be moved from the sides to the center, forming a horseshoe. Sample cases will be ranged along the sides, and all goods will be displayed from the sides and from the center display cases and racks. This plan has become popular in many large city stores. It is supposed to display the goods to better advantage and to give the customer an opportunity to view the merchandise at the sides of the store at much closer range. It also results in a saving of time for both customer and salesman.

The Smith Hardware store has been continuous in Jacksonville, under one name and in one family, for the past fifty years. It was organized in 1874 by H. L. and B. W. Smith under the firm name of the proprietors. Later Arthur G. Smith, father of the present proprietor, became associated with the firm, but the name remained as that of the two senior partners—H. L. & B. W. Smith. The store was originally opened in a building on the north side of the square immediately west of the old Jacksonville National bank and now part of that occupied by Myers Brothers. After a comparatively short stay in this location the business was moved to the building on the northeast corner of the square now occupied by Phelps Dry Goods Co., a few years later moving to the present location on the south side of the square.

Throughout the years the firm has handled an exclusive general hardware line, including oils, paints and varnishes. The goods handled are of the highest obtainable quality, and this has ever been the reputation of the firm.

In April 1922 H. L. Smith purchased the business, and the name was changed from H. L. & B. W. Smith to H. L. Smith Hardware. As a young man the present owner was an assistant in the store obtaining then 12 years of valuable experience, and he came into the proprietorship following ten years as a traveling salesman. The present personnel of the establishment is—S. A. Fairbank, Leo Sehy, Arthur Henderson, J. J. Coley, Edward Devlin, Miss Ruth Jordan, and Mr. Smith.

Efficient service, standard merchandise of high quality, and reasonable prices, have always been and will continue to be the principal factors in this business. In its quiet way the Smith Hardware store for fifty years has been distributing useful articles to the community. It would be impossible to compute the labor performed with the tools sold by this firm, or to estimate the service to the thousands of people which has been given through the goods distributed from its store. There is always something to stir the imagination in a Golden Jubilee of any sort, but somehow the record made by a business firm in these years of unobtrusive service to a city and community has in it something impressive.

It is planned to enlarge and improve the business as a celebration of the fiftieth anniversary, and it is certain that the people will continue to receive even more valuable service from this firm than in the past.
